

Licensing Info

Unless otherwise specified, all of my backing tracks come with a NON-EXCLUSIVE ROYALTY FREE PERSONAL USE ONLY license.

This means you pay for it once, and can use it for personal use as many times as you'd like without having to pay royalties to the composer for each use.

NON-EXCLUSIVE means you won't be the only one who has access to using it for songwriting.

PERSONAL means anything non-commercial.

What You CAN Use This Music For

Things you can use this music for are anything non-commercial, and include, but are not limited to:

- A singing demo
- A school project,
- A song for church
- Background music for your non-commercial video
- A song written to a loved one
- Music for a wedding or funeral
- Music to practice writing your lyrics to
- Teaching purposes
- On-hold phone music
- Elevator or room music
- Live performances where you are not selling the recording of your performance
-or simply your listening pleasure.

Things You CANNOT Use This Music For

All of my tracks have been officially released and their sound recordings are copyrighted (P). You cannot officially release any song you have written using my recordings because they have all been copyrighted.

You also cannot sell or make any kind of profit from using my recordings. I have been approached multiple times about granting commercial licenses, however, at this time, I do not have any commercial license contracts available. Look for this to happen in the future though.

If you upload my music to a YouTube video, please do not claim Content ID, as these recordings have been registered with the Government Copyright Office, and I will be immediately notified of a conflict in copyright, and we will both have to prove our ownership rights. Because I own the copyright to this song, and can prove it with documentation, your video will be taken off YouTube. So, please, let's spare both of us that hassle!
